OPTIONAL PROVISIONS

PURPOSE. Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. is a non-profit corporation and is organized pursuant to the provisions of the Georgia Non-Profit Corporation Code. Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. shall operate exclusively for religious and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc. shall provide educational opportunities to unify a broad interfaith audience through the promotion of multi-faceted conversations to combat media bias, foster a spirit of cooperation, and amplify various pro-Israel missions. To maximize the impact of our efforts, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations that fall under the 501(c)(3) section of the internal revenue code and are operated exclusively for religious, educational, or charitable purposes. At times, per the discretion of the board of directors, we may provide internships or volunteer positions which will provide opportunities for involvement in said activities and programs in order to bring about greater change in our communities. ARTICLE IV NON-PROFIT NATURE A. Non-profit Nature. Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. is not organized, and shall not be operated, for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its religious and charitable purposes. No part of the directors, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles. B. Personal Liability. No director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. in any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the directors be subject to the payment of the corporation's debts or obligations. C. Dissolution. Upon termination or dissolution of Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc., any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) having a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation. The organization to receive the assets of Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the board of directors of Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. If its directors cannot so agree, then the President shall decide. If the chairman declines to decide, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against Atlanta Israel Coalition, Inc., Inc. by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Georgia. D. Prohibited Distributions. No part of the net earnings of the directors or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III. E. Restricted Activities. No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. F. Prohibited Activities. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (2) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
